Welcome to this well-located bungalow in the heart of Mission Heights, just steps from schools, parks, and everyday amenities. Offering 5 bedrooms and 3 full bathrooms, this home provides plenty of space for families, along with ample storage. The basement features a cozy wood-burning fireplace, creating a warm and inviting space for movie nights, hobbies, or relaxing with family. The kitchen had been updated and has beautiful stone countertops and showcases a modern white design while the rest of the home reflects its original character — offering an excellent opportunity for buyers to add value and make it their own. With a functional layout, generous square footage, and an unbeatable central location, this property is full of potential for those looking to personalize a home in one of Grande Prairie's most sought-after neighbourhoods.
