This home is nestled on a quiet street with quick access to shopping and amenities. The large lot offers endless possibilities, including backyard access through the alley and off-street parking in the front, making it ideal for a brand-new build. For the right buyer with vision, this could also be transformed into a charming character home. The existing structure features 2 bedrooms, a full bathroom, and a large kitchen on the main floor, while the upper level has 2 more bedrooms, a kitchenette, and another full bathroom. The lower level offers additional space with a 3rd kitchenette, a flex room, and another bathroom, plus potential for another bedroom with an egress window update. Outside, you'll find a single-car garage, a storage shed, and a fenced backyard with space for even more off-street parking. IF you're looking for a redevelopment project, this property has endless potential. Don't miss out—schedule your viewing today!.
